

2008 Junior All-Star Series

Entry into 2008 Junior All-Star Series events will not be based on a resume as it has been in the past. All players, regardless of status, may participate in a maximum of five Junior All-Star Series events. The year-end Junior All-Star Series Championship does not count toward that maximum. To be eligible for any of the Junior All-Star Series events, a player must be between 12-15 years old throughout the duration of the event (practice round date through the final round).

Earning Entry Into Junior All-Star Series Events

- Fully Exempt Status: Fully Exempt Status is earned with top finishes under the Performance Based Entry system.
- Junior All-Star Exempt Status: Junior All-Star Exempt Status is earned by meeting the criteria below.

Important Notes

- Players who gain entry into a Junior All-Star Series event based upon their Performance Based Entry status are not required to use a Tournament Exemption or Performance Stars to play in the event. A player's status will be retained and can be used to gain entry into an AJGA Open tournament.
- Players are limited to five Junior All-Star Series events per year. The year-end Junior All-Star Series Championship is an invitational and does not count toward that total.
- Junior All-Star Series events DO count toward the AJGA tournament maximum of FIVE.

Junior Golf Scoreboard Rankings Eligibility

To be eligible to be ranked in The Junior Golf Scoreboard rankings a player must meet the following criteria.

- Have competed in three multi-day stroke play tournaments within the last 52 weeks for which we have received the results and they are listed by the same name and hometown.
- Have their high school graduation year in their tournament record. Missing yours? Read next paragraph.
- Still be in high school or prior to August 1st after graduation.
- Have competed in an age group that:
 - a. completes at least 36 holes,
 - b. has a minimum of 5 competitors that complete all scheduled rounds, and
 - c. has played from a minimum of 4,500 yards and not shorter than the forward most USGA rated tees.

The rankings are a work in progress and some names might be missing because we do not have a player's graduation date and/or we do not have results for them for the required minimum of three tournaments. Please email staff@juniorgolfscoreboard.com with any questions.
