CONWAY NAMED HP SCHOLASTIC JUNIOR ALL-AMERICAN

Wading River, N.Y. native honored by the AJGA, HP for achievements on the golf course, in the classroom

BRASELTON, Ga. — Wading River, N.Y., native Katie Conway was named an HP Scholastic Junior All-American by the American Junior Golf Association and HP Tuesday. The 2006 team, sponsored for the 12th consecutive year by HP, consists of 12 young men and 12 young women who demonstrate the ability to excel both on the golf course and in the classroom.

To be eligible for the HP Scholastic Junior All-America Team, boys must have placed in the top 10 of an AJGA event, while girls needed a top-five finish. The selections were then based on grade-point average, class rank, SAT/ACT scores, leadership skills, community service and writing ability. Candidates were required to submit an essay no longer than 400 words that creatively focused on the game of golf.

These outstanding individuals will be honored during the Rolex Junior All-America Awards Banquet Nov. 19 at The Cloister in Sea Island, Ga. By being named to this team, Conway is also eligible to participate in the Polo Golf Junior Classic – one of the most prestigious events in junior golf – taking place Nov. 18-24 at Sea Island Golf Club in Sea Island, Ga.

Conway, 17, attends Shoreham-Wading River High School where she is ranked first in her class out of 200 and carries a 98.18 GPA. This is the second consecutive year the 2007 graduate has been honored as an HP Scholastic Junior All-American. Conway has been an active member of the National Honor Society and youth group as well as serving as yearbook editor at Shoreham-Wading River High School. Conway had a productive 2006 season, finishing in the top 10 three times including a third place finish at the CorseMax/Philadelphia Runner Junior in Elverson, Pa., and second at the PING Junior at The Woodlands in The Woodlands, Texas.

“HP is delighted once again to recognize academic excellence with the naming of the 2006 HP Scholastic Junior All-America Team,” said John Dayan, vice president of marketing, Personal Systems Group Americas, Hewlett Packard. “The AJGA works hard to prepare young adults for life after high school by instilling honor, perseverance and good sportsmanship. HP is proud to be associated with the AJGA and this great group of young adults.”
